AMERICA'S BOUNTY '75

For seven decades, Anchor Hocking has been part of the American Scene—its growth, its progress . . . and its bounty.

Because wherever you find American foods, kitchens and dining rooms . . . you'll find Anchor Hocking. We serve America's Bounty. That's the Spirit of Anchor Hocking.

For 1975 we are again proud to present the broadest line of popular Table-Top and Ornamental glassware in the industry . . . the result of satisfying the changing tastes of the American consumer.

How to Order

Ordering from your 1975 Anchor Hocking Catalog is easier than ever. This handy buying guide provides complete information on table top and ornamental glassware . . . available in Bulk, Gift Sets, and 4-piece Anchor Packs.

You can find exactly what you're looking for by using either the Table of Contents or the Index. The catalog is divided into sections by related product classifications, with Bulkware listed at the front of each section followed by Gift Sets. Each page is color-coded for instant reference. So you can quickly locate any item or section whether you use the catalog from the front or back. Red is Beverageware, Gold is Tableware, Brown is Food Preparation, and Blue is Ornamental/Novelty. As in years past, new products for 1975 are listed in Blue Item Order Numbers.

This unique chart-form ordering system—the industry standard for years—has been improved and refined in 1975 to help you:

- Locate items you want, fast.
- Find important package and shipper information easily.
- Prepare your order without error.
- Identify new items at a glance.

Always make certain complete Item Order Number appears on your order—prefix letter indicates the glass color, cut or glass type selection, e.g.,

"T" for Avocado "L" for Lustre Shell
 "N" for Honey Gold "H" for Crystal Fire-King
 "F" for Laser Blue "W" for White
 "Y" for Spicy Brown "J" for Cut Glass
 Crystal carries no prefix "M" for Harvest Amber (Ovenware)

Picture Reference code lets you quickly relate the product in the picture to product description on the chart.

Descriptions are in order by capacities from small to large.

These columns indicate various shipper packing availabilities.

All new products and/or package are shown in blue under item (or set) number listings.

BEVERAGEWARE

Pushing the American Frontier Westward.

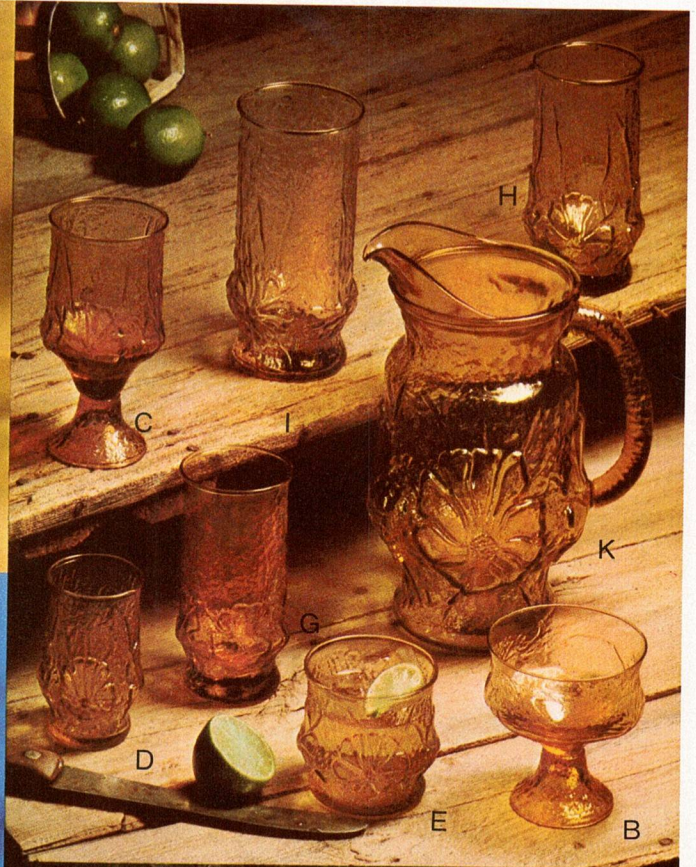

America on-the-move needed a moveable feast... and the wide open spaces produced some big meals for big appetites. The staple foods for the westward expansion included barbecue beef ribs, steaks, salads, fruits, sourdough bread... and the natural bounty of the west coast vineyards. "Come and get it!" was always a welcome sound.

TABLEWARE

Hospitality...Dixie Style.

America's Bounty found a stylish interpretation down south... with glazed ham, fried chicken, corn bread, shrimp creole, pecan pie, and elaborate casserole dishes. The leisurely lifestyle produced one of America's most creative—and delicious—cuisines.

FOOD PREPARATION

The American Revolution in Foods.

America's Bounty was born... and nourished by the hardy and natural foods at-hand: lobsters, clams, sole, bread pudding, baked beans, home brews and cider... since a young country getting on her feet hardly had time for frills and fancy dishes.

The Heartland of America's Bounty.

America's bread basket has always been the Midwest and Great Plains with breads and grains of all kinds, dairy products, cheeses, pies, cakes, pork, beef and vegetables. As Americans headed north, south and west... they took the heartland's bounty with them.
